Revival

What is a Christian Revival?

Revival refers to a Spiritual reawakening, from a state of dormancy or stagnation, in the life of a Believer. It encompasses the resurfacing of a love for God, an appreciation of God's Holiness, a passion for His Word and His Church, a convicting awareness of personal and corporate sin, a spirit of humility, a desire for repentance and growth in Righteousness. Revival invigorates and sometimes deepens a Believer's faith, opening his or her eyes to the Truth in a fresh, new way.

It generally involves the connotation of a fresh start with a clean slate, marking a new beginning of a life lived in obedience to God. Revival breaks the charm and power of the world, which blinds the eyes of men, and generates both the will and power to live in the world, but not of the world.

In the USA, the first Revival, also called the First Great Awakening, produced an upsurge of devotion among Protestants, in the 1730s and 1740s, carving a permanent mark on American religion. It resulted from authoritative preaching, that deeply moved the Church members, with a convicting awareness of personal guilt and the awesome nature of Salvation through Christ. Breaking away from dry ritual and rote ceremony, the Great Awakening made Christianity intensely personal to the average person, as it should be, by creating a deep emotional need, for relationship with Christ.

Revival, in many respects, replicates the Believer's experience when he or she is saved. It is initiated by a prompting of the Holy Spirit, creating an awareness of something missing or wrong in the Believer's life that can only be restored, by God. In turn, the Christian must respond from the heart, acknowledging his or her needs. Then, in a powerful way, the Holy Spirit draws back the veil the world has cast over the Truth, allowing the Believers to fully see themselves in comparison to God's Majesty and Holiness. Obviously, such comparisons bring great humility, but also great Awe of God and His truly Amazing Grace (Isaiah 6:5). Unlike the original conversion experience that brings about a new relationship to God, however, Revival represents a restoration of fellowship with God, the relationship having been retained even though the Believer had pulled away for a time.

God, through His Holy Spirit, calls us to Revival in several situations. Christ's letters to the seven Churches reveal some circumstances that may necessitate Revival. In the letter to Ephesus, Christ praised the Church for their perseverance and discernment, but He stated that they had forsaken their first love (Revelation 2:4-5). Many times, as the excitement of acceptance to Christ grows cold, we lose the zeal that we had at first. We become bogged down in the ritual, going through the motions, but we no longer experience the joy of serving Christ.

Revival helps restore that first Love and Passion for Christ. Revelation 2:10-11 refers to the Church at Smyrna, which was suffering intense persecution. The cares and worries of life can beat us down, leaving us emotionally, physically, and spiritually exhausted. Revival can lift us up to new hope and faith.

CONQUERING HINDERING SPIRITS

Hindering spirits are poised and would like nothing more than to catch you off guard. Beware. Be vigilant. Be prayerful.

Hindering spirits work to steal, kill, and destroy by thwarting your progress toward a goal or destination. They prevent you from moving forward. They delay, impede, hamper, and hold you back. Your purpose is to do God's Will and you find ridiculous obstacles at every turn. Everything is moving more slowly than anticipated. It's frustrating.

The problem is many Believers don't discern the hindering spirit in operation. They may bind the spirit of delay but don't dig deeper into the demonic hierarchy to understand that the spirit of delay is an offspring spirit and is perhaps working with hindering spirits. Spirits often tag team in this manner, and only the most discerning can sever the root of the attack, because only the most discerning can see it.

Hindering Spirits Working Against You

Paul the Apostle experienced hindering spirits in his Ministry. In 1 Thessalonians 2:17-18, he wrote these words to one of the Churches he planted, "But we, brethren, having been taken away from you for a short time in presence, not in heart, endeavored more eagerly to see your face with great desire. Therefore, we wanted to come to you – even I, Paul, time and again – but Satan hindered us."

Other translations say, “Satan, blocked our way” or “Satan, obstructed us” or “Satan, always stopped us” or “Satan, would not let us.” The idea is the same. Hindering spirits, under the ultimate command of Satan, keep us from moving, in our assignment, obtaining our breakthrough, or otherwise glorifying God with our lives, by fulfilling our purpose.

We also see hindering spirits at work, in the Book of Ezra, when the Israelites were working to rebuild the Temple, Ezra 4:4-5 (The Voice) reveals, “To intimidate the returning Jews from building, the people of the land made the returning exiles afraid to build (v5) and bribed counselors, to hinder the Jews’ efforts throughout the reigns of Cyrus and Darius, the King of Persia.”

As Scripture illustrates, hindering spirits can work through people. Beyond Ezra’s opposition, we see the Apostle John calling out Diotrefes, because “He assails us with lies and deceit. As if that were not enough, he does not welcome the traveling Missionaries into his home, instead, he hinders any who do so and expels them from the Church” (3 John 10)

Prayers against Hindering Spirits

Let’s pray against these hindering spirits. We should start with repentance, for not discerning the hindering spirits – or for tolerating them, because of apathy, frustration or just being overwhelmed.

Three Steps to Conquering Hindering Spirits

Break the Word Curses

Pray:

“Father, I cancel every word curse of (division, fear, lies, deception, jealousy, pride, confusion, delay, distraction, etc.) that I have spoken over myself or that others have spoken over me in the Name and Blood of Jesus Christ. I break all agreement with those word curses and declare that they will have no power over me from this day forth. I purpose in my heart to speak and agree with Words of Life and not death.”

Replace the wrong self-image with God's Image of you

In the past, we had a defeated self-image. Being afraid to go after the Promises of God. Thankfully, God got a hold of me, and that ungodly self-image doesn't line up with me anymore. I recognize that what I allowed to hinder me was my agreement with that fearful cowering position of the enemy. I must change the picture I see of myself and let the Word of God paint a new image of me. I am more than a conqueror!

We can't become who God says we are unless we can see ourselves, as He sees us. We will become what we imagine whether that image is positive or negative. If we think we are failures, we will be. We must deal with our imagination and get it to line up with God's opinion of us. We can't let what people say or our wrong agreements determine our identity or our future.

Spending time in God's Word Daily

The only way to know who you are in Jesus Christ is to meditate daily on God's Word. The book of Ephesians and Colossians are good places to start. Ask God to reveal His Truth to you, through the Power of the Holy Spirit before you begin reading your Bible each day. You would never starve your body of food intentionally, so why starve your spirit the food of God's Word!
